

Barrow Expedition™ - One Day Tour

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

TOUR LENGTH

The Barrow One Day Tour involves a full day of travel and touring from Fairbanks to Barrow. Please see reverse for departure and arrival times.

INCLUSIONS

The tour price includes Barrow Village Tour, and air transportation. Meals are NOT included in the tour price. A sack lunch can be purchased in the morning as part of the check in process.

BARROW VILLAGE TOUR

The Barrow Village Tour will include traveling by van thru the residential and commercial areas of the community, and a stop out along the shores of the

AIRCRAFT

The flight portion of the tour is operated by Air Arctic, a Fairbanks based charter operator. Air craft used are 8 passenger, twin-engine Piper Navajo Chieftains.

ALCOHOL

The village of Barrow is a "damp" community. The sale of alcoholic beverages is prohibited and punishable by law. Alcohol is allowed for personal consumption and may be brought into the village. Please respect the laws set forth by the residents of the community.

CHECK-IN PROCEDURE

Please call 907-474-8600 to check in at least one day prior to tour departure. On the day of the tour, it is the guest's responsibility to arrange transportation to the airport at least one hour prior to flight departure. Fairbanks departures leave from the Fairbanks International Airport East Ramp terminal.

LUGGAGE

NOTE: It is very important to limit yourself to one hand-carry size bag per person for your day bag. If needed, Northern Alaska Tour Company can store excess baggage and deliver it to you upon your return from the tour. WEIGHT LIMIT: Guests are limited to 5—10pounds per person. Luggage over 10 pounds is subject to excess freight charges.

Items carried into the plane with you are limited to items small enough to fit in the seat pocket in front of you (water bottle, book, camera). All other items will need to be stored in a secure luggage area by the flight crew.

WHAT TO WEAR

Dress for comfort, not to impress. Wear comfortable walking-type shoes that can get a bit soiled in the event of rain. Dress in layers, and bring a warm medium-weight jacket. During spring (mid-May to mid-June) and fall (mid-August to mid-September) bring a warm cap and gloves or mittens.

ALTERATION

PLEASE NOTE: Guest safety always takes precedence over convenience. Weather in the Arctic can and does affect flying conditions. On rare occasions, weather or other uncontrollable circumstances may require alteration/cancellation of a portion or all of the scheduled tour itinerary. If weather or other uncontrollable circumstances prevents arrival at a scheduled tour destination, there is no cost to the guest for a completely missed tour. Please contact Northern Alaska Tour Company for refund. If the tour requires additional overnight stay due to weather or uncontrollable circumstances the cost of accommodations and meals is the guest's responsibility. Contact Top of the World Hotel in Barrow for accommodation assistance should it be required.

If an alteration does occur, please notify Northern Alaska Tour Company immediately at 1-800-474-1986 so that efforts can be made to provide logistical assistance from Fairbanks.

The Spirit of Alaska's Arctic

The Inupiat Eskimo community of Barrow, Alaska is located at the geographical northernmost point of land on the North American Continent. Here on the Arctic coast approximately 4,000 people live and work in this extreme environment. Traditionally, the Inupiat people relied on resources from the ocean and land to survive. In contemporary times these resources are still an important part of life and culture of the Inupiat Eskimo people. Barrow is an eclectic mix of modern and ancient ways, together in the present, shaping the future. Barrow is a truly unique destination that is certain to be a memorable component of the Alaska experience.
